Portrayals of girls as wild, spirited, and unapologetic are rare which is why Pippi is such a gem. As girl empowerment is deservedly gaining speed as a genre, Pippi's appeal as the original quick thinking, cleverly subversive, independent and capable heroine is more refreshing and relevant than ever. Though she makes mistakes and is often mischievous, she always remains true to herself, good to her friends, and the hero of her own story, a nice reminder about the value of personal quirks and individuality.

The world's most beloved strong-girl fights fires, saves babies, and causes mischief in PIPPY LONGSTOCKING HC VOL 1 PIPPI MOVES IN and PIPPY LONGSTOCKING HC VOL 2 FIXES EVERYTHING, written by ASTRID LINDGREN with art by INGRID VANG—available now!
